Summary

Notes:

Selected Players cannot hold a captaining role.

Only Selected Players who have accepted their invite to play for Ireland at that Olympiad can vote on the captains. If a player has not accepted their place at the time of captain selection, they cannot vote.

Those players who do vote on the captain can vote for the captain of their team alone.

Those players who do vote on the captain can assign their points entirely to one candidate, or split their points between candidates in any manner they deem satisfactory.
